THE PYX (1973)

With Karen Black and Christopher Plummer

THURSDAY July 3Oth 7PM

Visiting from Montreal is Philippe Spurrell, our friend and the founder and artistic director of CFS (Cinéclub de Montréal/The Film Society). Accompanying him on his trip to Portland is an uncut 16mm scope print of a film he will introduce from a Montreal perspective.

THE PYX (1973) starring Christopher Plummer and Karen Black tells the story of a Montreal police detective unraveling the mystery behind the death of a heroin-addicted prostitute who joins a satanic cult then dies under bizarre circumstances after falling from a building. Made during the height of tax shelter-funded 'Canuxploitation' cinema, this crime investigation procedural contains enough horror elements to make it ideal for summer viewing. Three songs beautifully sung by Karen Black for this film make it worth the price of admission alone!
